

Paraben's Deployable P2 Commander 1.0

Release Notes

Welcome to Paraben's Deployable P2 Commander!

This program allows you to scan the investigated computer and to acquire the detected data to the defined location. With Paraben's Deployable P2 Commander you will be able to detect the most important data by Registry analysis, search for data by file types, search and acquire deleted data, run directly from the flash drive without starting Windows and more.

Deployable P2 Commander Key Features

Paraben's Deployable P2 Commander has the following key features:

- Scanning for installed e-mail clients, including Group Wise, Microsoft Exchange, Lotus Notes, America On-line, Microsoft Outlook, The Bat!, Thunderbird, Outlook Express, Eudora, Windows mail;
- Scanning for installed chat clients including Yahoo, ICQ, Skype, Miranda, Trillian, and MSN;
- Scanning for Internet browser data including History, Cache, Temporary Internet Files created by Internet Explorer;
- Scanning for existing My Documents folders;
- Scanning for recently opened files including My Recent Documents in Windows XP, Recent Places in Windows Vista/7;
- Scanning for deleted data on the investigated computer;
- Searching by text expression in data on the investigated computer;
- Quick scanning without specifying places for searching;
- Custom scanning with the possibility to specify locations for searching and file types to be searched;
- Possibility to start scanning on the investigated computer without starting Windows OS;
- Scanning a number of file types including chats, compressed, databases, documents, e-mail, encrypted, executable, graphics, multimedia, spreadsheets, text, and XML;
- Acquisition of found results to the defined location;
- Creation of log file that contains information on performed actions.